

what have you seen?

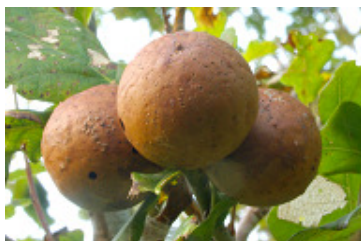

autumn

butterflies

red admirals, speckled wood and brimstone butterflies

galls

Knopper galls, spangle galls, marble galls or cola nut galls

ivy

watch bees and butterflies visiting ivy flowers

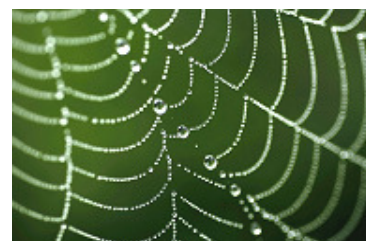

harvestmen

8 legs with 1 body part, look for them on oak bark

squirrels

watch for them gathering acorns and other seeds

webs

spider webs glistening with morning dew

owls

listen for tawny owls hooting in the evening

skeletons

look for leaf skeletons on the woodland floor

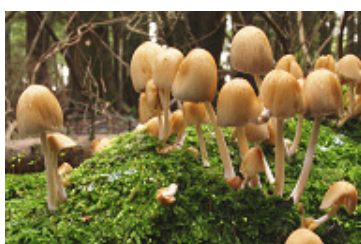

birds

visiting rowan trees for a berry feast

lookout

be still and quiet – what can you spot?

mushrooms

can you find a mushroom that has been nibbled?

badgers

look for old badger bedding left outside the sett

